

LOCOREGIONAL ANAESTHESIA: DEVICES, NEEDLES AND DRUGS

GUIDED TOUR

Monday 05 June from 10:00 to 11:00 - Exhibition Hall
Tour Captain: Luc Sermeus

09:45 Arrival at ESAIC Hub

10:00 Start of the tour

10:02 to 10:19 Injectable drugs used in local & regional anesthesia : perspectives for more safety and sustainability

Presenter: Caroline Velier

Aguettant is a family-owned French pharmaceutical company founded in 1903. Our daily mission is to serve healthcare professionals in hospitals around the world; particularly in the area of anesthesia, critical care and emergency. Experts in Ready-To-Administer products, Aguettant is now focusing on the future of regional anesthesia to provide safer and more sustainable solutions.

10:22 to 10:39

Ultrasound in Anesthesia: challenges and solutions

Presenter: François Boscheron

Discover the recent ultrasound update, products and solutions for Anesthesia from handheld device to premium compact system: which transducer type, systems configuration and settings are the most appropriate for the clinical challenges in anesthesia.

10:41 to 10:58:

Easier and safer locoregional Anaesthesia with high-end ultrasound techniques

Presenters: Stephane Husson, Gijsbert Stavast

Mindray offers an unique anaesthesia intelligence based workflow such as specific nerve live recognition features like "Smart Nerve" that allow for a tailored approach to patient care. The technology is designed to reduce the risk of complications, potentially improve efficiency and ensure the best possible outcome for the patient.

11:00

End of the tour at ESAIC Hub